YUSUF SABREE

Currently Yusuf Sabree is a math instructor at the Covenant House Alternative Education Academy in Detroit, Michigan. He obtained a Master's of Education Degree in Sports Administration from Wayne State University, Detroit, Michigan and completed internships with the Detroit Pistons Organization and the Detroit Public Schools Central Office Sports Administration.

In 1999 and 2000, Yusuf was an All-State guard for Detroit Renaissance High School in Detroit Michigan and earned a basketball scholarship to Lincoln University where he was captain of the Men's Basketball team from 2002-2004. The team had two successful winning seasons.

Yusuf has coached and trained young athletes for the last twelve years and participated in more than fifty local basketball camps. He coaches fifth through eighth grade teams at the Detroit Merit Academy. He also coaches in the Detroit Heat Boy's Basketball organization. He continues to coach PAL and AAU teams. While he attended undergraduate school, Yusuf coached at the Lincoln University and University of Missouri basketball camps. Yusuf is committed to teaching young athletes all aspects of basketball.

Yusuf believes that coaching basketball is not all about winning and losing. It is about building character, incorporating self-discipline, achieving success through teamwork, striving towards excellence, and developing a healthy lifestyle as part of the process.
