

ISLAMIC EDUCATION SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

MUSLIM COMMUNITY OF WESTERN SUBURBS OF DETROIT
40440 PALMER ROAD, CANTON, MICHIGAN 48188

ABOUT THE AWARD

The Islamic Education Scholarship was founded in 2004 by the Muslim Community of Western Suburbs of Detroit (MCWS). Its purpose is to award scholarships to Muslim children (K-12) to pursue Islamic Education in the USA. Preference will be given to students who are in financial need, are doing well academically, and are greatly interested in increasing their Islamic knowledge. Depending upon the parents' financial situation and the number of household members, the scholarship amount may be up to one-half of the student's Islamic School Tuition Fee, but it may not exceed $1000 / student / year. The scholarship check will be made payable to the particular Islamic School of their choice, only after the admission has been granted.

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

The following criteria must be successfully met in order to be granted the MCWS Islamic Education Scholarship:

- Submit completed application form
- Submit prior academic records
- Submit last financial statement of parents
- Submit a letter of recommendation (from the Islamic School Principle, the Masjid's Imam or a person of Islamic standing in the community)
- Submit a personal statement
- Complete an interview
